Warm Field Natural European Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Inspiration from sun-dappled countryside oak woodland, featuring soft honey-warm beige base blended with subtle light tawny undertones for a cozy natural tone.

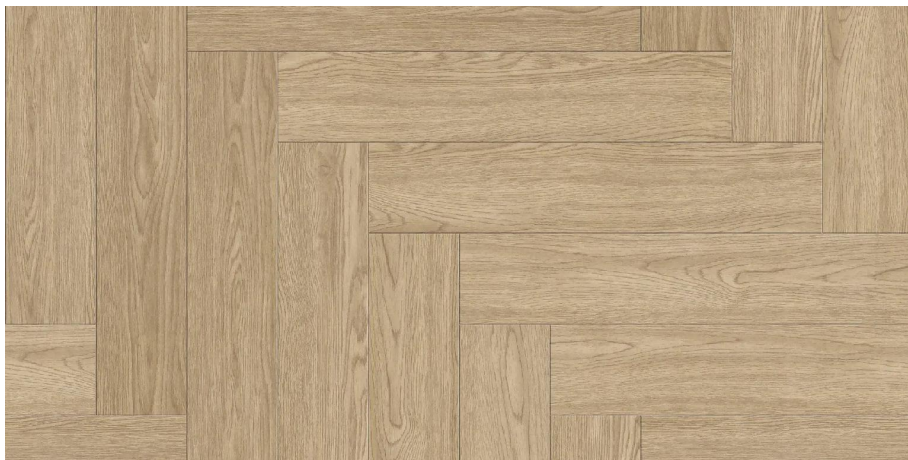

2507H

Cream Field Natural Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Features a soft creamy beige base with faint warm sand undertones, inspired by sunlit meadow oak, delivering a clean, bright neutral tone. Fine straight linear oak grain runs lengthwise across planks, sparsely dotted with subtle natural swirl grain and occasional delicate small growth knots, with minimal thin natural splits to retain authentic raw oak texture.

2509H Baltic Sunny Beige Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Captures a luminous, clean, and highly organic wood aesthetic inspired by northern European coastal landscapes and premium, sun-bleached timber elements.

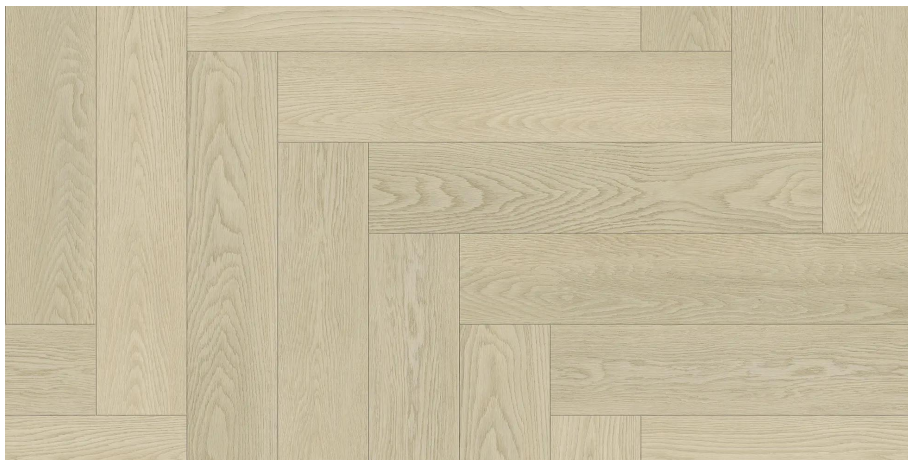

2514H

Field Honey Wax European Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Radiates a warm, sun-drenched cheerfulness that beautifully channels the classic charm of traditional European hardwood. It exhibits a highly refined, low-contrast texture where gentle, elongated cathedral arches sweep gracefully through tight, linear grain lines, punctuated only by occasional minimal, soft knots for an exceptionally clean look.

2515H Norway Glacier White Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Merges a crisp, frosty Nordic aesthetic with timeless organic simplicity. It highlights a highly elegant, low-contrast design where softly elongated, fluid cathedral rings seamlessly flow into a fine, linear grain structure, remaining completely free of heavy knots for a clean.

2516H Field Gilded European Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Beautifully blends authentic wood character with refined, upscale simplicity. It features a stunning display of prominent, rhythmic cathedral patterns that flow elegantly alongside tight, highly detailed linear grain structures, creating a deeply textured and natural look.

2519H Danish Field Honey Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Beautifully blends authentic wood character with refined, modern simplicity across the natural variations. It showcases a highly elegant, low-contrast design where softly elongated cathedral arches seamlessly flow into a fine, tight linear grain structure, remaining completely free of heavy knots for a clean, minimalist appeal.

2526H Creek Honey Yellow Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Exudes a classic, sun-drenched warmth that effortlessly brings a cheerful and welcoming energy to interiors across the beautiful visual planks. It showcases a beautifully balanced, low-contrast wood anatomy where soft, flowing cathedral rings transition smoothly into a fine, tightly combed linear oak grain.

2534H Rhine Cream Natural Oak

SENUOFLOOR

Captures a tranquil, luminous essence inspired by flowing riverside landscapes, offering a perfect blend of high-end minimalism and soft organic warmth across the serene planks. It presents an exceptionally smooth, ultra-low-contrast wood structure where gentle, elongated cathedral ring outlines dissolve effortlessly into a fine, linear wood grain.
