0851T Lyon Weathered Cement Slate

SENUOFLOOR

Slate replicates natural weathered cement slate mined from Lyon, France, featuring muted fog grey tone, subtle mineral speckles & delicate natural micro-crack texture with soft matte finish.

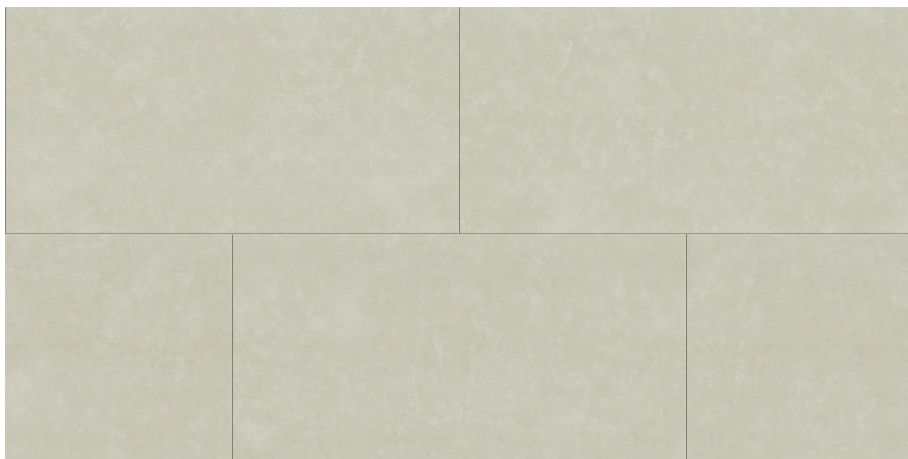

1974T Bordeaux Graphite Mineral Slate

SENUOFLOOR

Replicates deep graphite slate mined from ancient Bordeaux mountain mineral veins in southwest France. Rich dark grey base with scattered natural mineral cloud texture & delicate vintage micro cracks, matte industrial texture, top choice for European loft apartments, industrial commercial spaces & high-end minimalist villas.

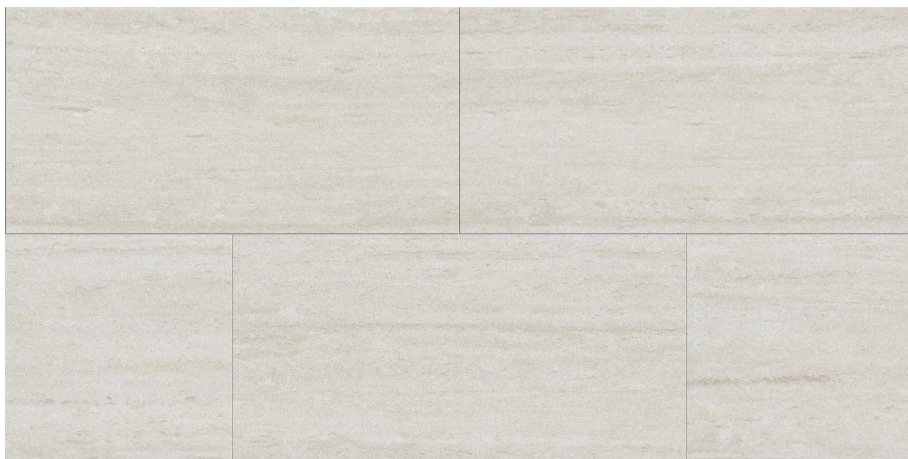

2382T

Provence Fluff Beige Stone

SENUOFLOOR

Delivers a beautifully serene, warm limestone aesthetic that captures the delicate, powdery surface transitions of aged European courtyard masonry. This high-end architectural stone surface is carefully composed to allow an expansive, continuous floor or wall layout without artificial pattern clustering or predictable repetition.

337-1T Sicily Off-white Travertine

SENUOFLOOR

Embodies a refined, classical architectural elegance inspired by natural Italian limestone, beautifully replicated across the horizontal vein-cut surfaces. The colorway is a pristine, airy blend of off-white, light cream, and soft ivory tones.

337-2T Tuscany Wild Travertine

SENUOFLOOR

Embodies a rugged, highly organic stone aesthetic that mirrors the raw, unrefined beauty of classic Italian quarries, expressed across the dynamic vein-cut structures. The colorway introduces a sophisticated, warm neutral palette based on an earthy, light warm grey and sandy beige background.

337-3T

Tuscany Pale Beige Travertine

SENUOFLOOR

Captures a warm, classical stone aesthetic that brings the timeless look of Italian architecture into modern spaces, intricately detailed across the linear, vein-cut layouts. The colorway is a soothing blend of creamy oat, pale beige, and light warm tan undertones.
